

Ernesto Garcia

Performer

Graduated in Dramatic Literature and Theatre from the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM). In his twenty years of experience he has worked in productions of different styles directed by theatrists such as Enrique Parada, Horacio Almada and José Luis Ibáñez. He has also participated in several television series. His work as a puppeteer and handler of objects is very remarkable, especially in productions of Emmanuel Márquez's company Figura-T as From ear to heart (De la oreja al corazón). He has also participated in shows by Motus Théâtre, a Canadian company directed by Hélène Ducharme, as Moon in the eyes of my father (Luna, en los ojos de mi padre).
